

TITLE: LAKBAY ALAMAT

There are many stories that are told from generation to generation. From famous mythologies to legends that are still alive, Lakbay Alamat provides you the origin of these stories and gives you some places to visit. This website is for tourists or people that want to know more about the culture of the Filipino people. This gives you the opportunity to not only hear good stories, but also make good adventures.

HOME PAGE:

- Where the logo, introduction, and the other linked web pages will be found. It will contain the description of the whole website.

MOUNT MAKILING:

- It will contain a short summary of the legend of Maria Makiling, and the description of the Mount Makiling which houses the legend. There will also be pictures of the actual mountain, and will also contain the links to the other web pages including the home page. (References are also included)

MAYON VOLCANO:

- It will have a short summary of the legend of the Mayon Volcano, and its description. Pictures of the mountain will be included. The other web pages will also be included in this web page. (References are also included)

PANAY ISLAND:

- It will include a short summary of the Mystical Hidden City in Panay Island. It will also include some pictures of the place. The other web pages will also be linked. (References are also included)

ABOUT US:

- This webpage will include the name of the author (me) and the reason why I made this website. It will include the links to the other web pages as well.